Saints of the Week

October 17th,
St. Ignatius of Antioch,
Bishop & Martyr

According to tradition, today's saint was the second after Peter to be Bishop of Antioch. Condemned to the beasts, Ignatius was brought to Rome in Trajan's time and died courageously in 107. On the way to Rome he wrote seven letters to various churches. These give interesting information about Christian life at that time.

Offertory October 5th
