From St. Gregory of Tours we know that today's saint, the first Bishop of Paris, was sent from Rome around the year 250. He organized the Church in Paris and was killed there with two clerics during Valerian's persecution (258). An abbey and large abbey church were built at his tomb in Paris.

Pro-Life Corner:

October 5 – Lives are saved when God's faithful sacrifice an hour or two a week to stand for those who have no voice! Unless we are there, (praying at an abortion mill) that innocent child is voiceless and defenseless and moments away from certain death.

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.
