Saints of the Week

October 1st,
St. Theresa of the Child
Jesus,
Virgin

Today's saint is the popular "Little Flower of Jesus" (1873-1897). Marie Theresa Martin, devout from childhood, by special permission entered the cloistered Carmelites of Lisieux in France at age 15. She developed a spiritual approach of striving for perfection by being a child of God. At age 24 she died in profoundly spiritual fashion. Her autobiography, The Story of Soul, helped to make her popular in the following years. She was canonized a saint in 1925.

Pro-Life Corner:

September 28 – To end abortion and euthanasia no sacrifice is too extreme. There is no price that we can attach to a precious life. We must leave this world better than we found it, even if it costs us our lives! Abortion and euthanasia must end now.

*Remember your mercies,
O Lord.*
