Saints of the Week

February 11th,
Our Lady of Lourdes

This day recalls the dramatic story of Lourdes in France and the influence of Lourdes on Catholic life. On this day in 1858, in unbelieving and materialistic times, the Immaculate Virgin first appeared to Bernadette Soubirous. Through this humble girl, Mary called sinners to conversion. Lourdes remains a powerful grace for the Church and the world.

Pro-Life Corner:

Feb 15- "Abortion is the only surgery for which the surgeon is not obligated to inform the patient of the possible risks of the procedure, or even the exact nature of the procedure. Indeed, abortion providers are the only medical personnel who have a 'constitutional right' to withhold information, even when directly questioned by the patient."
