June 1st
St. Justin,
Martyr

“St. of Joy” – The delightful Philip Neri gifted with a special sense of humor. Born in Florence in 1515. Philip came to Rome at age 26 and never left the Eternal City. Rome recently occupied and sacked (1527), was in pitiable condition, Philip visited the sick and imprisoned, taught the children, heard confessions. He founded the Oratorio of Divine Love – Oratorian Priests. Philip delighted in walking to the Seven Basicilicas in Rome. He died at 80, was canonized in 1622, and remains an influential force in Rome and throughout the Catholic world.

June 2nd,
Sts. Marcellinus &
Peter,
Martyrs

These two martyrs are associated with the catacombs-those vast underground burial chambers of special importance for the early centuries of our faith. The catacombs of Marcellinus and Peter, located outside Rome, contain the richest collection of early Christian paintings. A beautiful inscription from Pope Damasus states that Peter and Marcellinus demonstrated edifying serenity in the face of death. They were martyred around 304 or 305. The family of Constantine built a large basilica in their honor.

Pro-Life Corner:

June 7- “Nothing we do to defend the human person, no matter how small, is ever unfruitful or forgotten. Our actions touch other lives and move other hearts in ways we can never fully understand in this world. Don’t ever underestimate the beauty and power of the witness you give in your pro-life work.”

Archbishop Charles Chaput
Pray for an end to abortion and euthanasia.

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.
