Catechism of the Catholic Church

God Comes to Meet Man

In Brief:

68. By love, God has revealed himself and given himself to man. He has thus provided the definitive, superabundant answer to the questions that man asks himself about the meaning and purpose of his life.

69. God has revealed himself to man by gradually communicating his own mystery in deeds and in words.

70. Beyond the witness to himself that God gives in created things, he manifested himself to our first parents, spoke to them and, after the fall, promised them salvation (cf. Gen 3:15) and offered them his covenant.
