St. Patrick's Catholic Church

Father Samuel Appiasi
Deacon Fred Soto

Catechism of the Catholic Church
"BELIEVE IN LIFE EVERLASTING"

In Brief:

1054. Those who die in God's grace and friendship imperfectly purified, although they are assured of their eternal salvation, undergo a purification after death, so as to achieve the holiness to enter the joy of God.

1055. By virtue of the 'communion of saints,' the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf.

1056. Following the example of Christ, the Church warns the faithful of the 'sad and lamentable reality of eternal death' (GCD 69), also called "hell."

1057. Hell's principal punishment consists of eternal separation from God in whom alone man can have the life and happiness for which he was created and for which he longs.
