Turkey Festival

Our Turkey Festival is set for Sunday, September 25th, 2016. All parishioners are encouraged to continue the sale of Raffle tickets. Tickets are located at the front entrance of the church. We are also in need of auction items. If you have any items you would like to donate, please bring them by the parish office. Please keep in mind that we will be needing help in the serving lines, auction and games. Let us come together to celebrate as a parish family.

Catechism of the Catholic Church
“From Thence He Will Come Again To Judge The Living And The Dead”

In Brief:

680. Christ the Lord already reigns through the Church, but all the things of this world are not yet subjected to him. The triumph of Christ's kingdom will not come about without one last assault by the powers of evil.

681. On Judgment Day at the end of the world, Christ will come in glory to achieve the definitive triumph of good over evil which, like the wheat and the tares, have grown up together in the course of history.

682. When he comes at the end of time to judge the living and the dead, the glorious Christ will reveal the secret disposition of hearts and will render to each man according to his works and according to his acceptance or refusal of grace.

Religious Education News:

Registrations for the 2016-2017 program will take place Wednesday, August 24th in the Heritage Room from 7-8:00 p.m. If your child has never registered in our program we ask that you please provide a copy of your child's birth certificate and Baptismal certificate.*

Pro-Life Corner:

July 31 – The famous “Liberty Bell” has part of Leviticus 25:10 inscribed on it: “Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.” The Gettysburg Address stated “...this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom.” Our nation today needs a new birth of religious freedom, which is rapidly being taken from us. Defend all life and religious freedoms today.

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
