Catechism of the Catholic Church
"Liturgical Diversity And The Unity Of The Mystery"

In Brief:

1207. It is fitting that liturgical celebration tends to express itself in the culture of the people where the Church finds herself, though without being submissive to it. Moreover, the liturgy itself generates cultures and shapes them.

1208. The diverse liturgical traditions or rites, legitimately recognized, manifest the catholicity of Church, because they signify and communicate the same mystery of Christ.

1209. The criterion that assures unity amid the diversity of liturgical traditions is fidelity to apostolic Tradition, i.e., the communion in the faith and the sacraments received from the apostles, a communion that is both signified and guaranteed by apostolic succession.

Pro-Life Corner:

February 26 – Nothing is more dreaded than the national government meddling with religion. Now is the time to petition our government to reaffirm our God-given, Constitutionally granted, right of freedom of religion.

Rest in God alone, my soul.
