St. John Mary Vianney,
Priest
August 4th

St. Vianney attended a minor seminary at Verrieres-en-Forez and was later sent to the major seminary at Lyons in 1813. He still struggled with his schooling but Abbe Balley persuaded the Vicar general that St. Vianney's extraordinary piety made up for his limitations. St. Vianney was finally ordained a priest on August 12, 1815 in the Couvent des Minimés de Grenoble and celebrated his first mass the very next day. He was also appointed Abbe Balley's assistant. When Abbe Balle passed away three years later, St. Vianney was appointed parish priest of the town of Ars. This opened his eyes to the sordid state of the community of 230 people. During the course of his assignment in Ars, St. Vianney strived to transform his town spiritually. He vehemently preached against blasphemy and pagan dancing and refused to give absolution to parishioners who did not obey. It took St. Vianney 10 years to bring spiritual renewal to Ars but his perseverance resulted in greater attendance in his church and the people turning away from their vices.

The life and vocation of St. John Marie Vianney shows us the importance of our role in the spiritual transformation of our communities. St. Vianney was able to transcend over his limitations and humble beginnings to become an exemplary priest who changed his town and even the world. St. Vianney was canonized in 1925 by Pope Pius XI and was made the patron saint of parish priests.
